

QUALITY POLICY

Liveware is committed to achieving the satisfaction of its clients:

- Analyzing their needs and expectations in detail before issuing a proposal.
- Assigning the most appropriate human resources to the characteristics of the project.
- Promoting the cultural change of the organization for the adoption of innovations and improvements.
- Guaranteeing the confidentiality and the right of ownership of the clients' information.
- Applying the best practices on each and every project, regardless of its scope.
- Assuming and facing the challenges that arise from the daily work with its stakeholders, and promoting its resolution.
- Counting with highly-experienced professionals in constant development and growth.

The stated Quality Policy is extended, to the corresponding extent, to all the stakeholders of the organization.